- Contractual bonus
- Sports marketing

As an organizer of events with a sporting nature or as athletes under contract, it is very well possible that you offer your athletes a prize or bonus for having achieved an outstanding result in a sporting contest.

The event in question may differ from individual distance runs (marathons, half-marathon, 15km, 10km or other distances) where the athletes are rewarded a bonus for breaking the World record, the current World best- or the track record, to achievements in other fields of sport, like soccer, basketball, horseback-riding or tennis.

For example

The bonus rewarded to an individual long distance runner or a tennis player for winning for example a marathon or tennis tournament;

The bonus rewarded to an individual (soccer, basketball) player for his other part in the achievements of a team during a certain season or tournament /World Championship;

The achievement of a team as a whole during a certain season or tournament;

The achievement of a rider on horseback in a jumping contest.

Budget

The bonus you offer the elected participants will have to be covered by the designed portion of your budget. In this respect we offer you an insurance, which helps to protect this part of your budget and give you as an organisation more possibilities.

Prize (bonus) Indemnity Insurance

We now have the pleasure to offer you an insurance, which covers the bonus. Thus if you choose to bind an insurance for a certain event and the contracted athlete succeeds in winning the contest, underwriters will indemnify you for the monetary value for having to keep your obligation in respect of the insured contest.

Insurance premium

Every contest has its own features. Consequently the premium for Prize Indemnity Insurance is designed and calculated to fit every individual event very close by and can certainly not be characterized as a standard product.
